Dear Friends of Shockoe Hill Cemetery,

It's going to be a busy Fall at the Cemetery! Our final three Sunday Tours are scheduled for September 20 at Noon ("Courageous Confederates", led by Taylor Cowardin), October 4 at 2:00 ("Dabney's Fav Graves" - led by junior Board Member Dabney Leverty) and October 18 at 2:00 ("Shockoe Hill Cemetery Women of Note", led by Kris Leverty.) And on October 24, we'll recognize all the new military markers installed since May with a Marker Dedication Day — keep watch for more details on that. Also, many thanks to the Duval Family Association, whose members I spoke to and led on a guided tour in July. It's great to make new friends!

Dedication of 11 New Markers

We anticipate dedicating ten military markers and one civilian marker on Saturday, October 24, at 1:00 p.m. Among the markers will be a memorial marker for Henry L. Francisco, grandson of Peter Francisco. Henry's marker will be placed near Peter's grave. The civilian marker is for Mrs. Henrietta H. Allan. Mrs. Allan was the widow of two sons of John Allan, Sr., the foster father of Edgar Allan Poe.

Pictures From the Past

It's rare that we see a photograph of one of our soldiers, but the family of Robert Wham of South Carolina provided us with this incredible photo of him in uniform.

They have recently ordered a government marker for his grave site.

Sons of Confederate Veterans Visit

The Friends were pleased to host a visit in July from more than 30 attendees of the Sons of Confederate Veterans national meeting, which took place in Richmond. One person has a relative — Lt. Peter F. Vaden — in an unmarked grave, and we helped that person obtain a government marker!

If your group would like a private tour of historic Shockoe Hill Cemetery, please contact us. We have had church groups, military groups, Girl Scouts, women's groups, and more. We can tailor a tour to your interests!
